

corporate abuse like unsafe products, predatory lending, false advertising, astroturfing and pollution.
organization

[HED123] products that are of lower quality and different from the original products from its manufacturers
Fake or Adulterated Products

[HED123] Products are sold at reduced prices during stock clearance sales

[HED123] Certain products may be difficult to find in the market because some individuals or sellers are ----- such products
Hoarding of Goods

[HED123] Individuals that have strong purchasing powers are able to ----- the sellers to sell at a lower price.
convince

[HED123] Some reasons responsible for product hoarding create affordability in prize

[HED123] Examples of deceptive practices by manufacturers in order to exploit buyers of their products are ----- except producing quality material

[HED123] Wholesale purchases are usually lower compared to retail purchase. This statement describe Variation in Price

[HED123] the ----- which is known as MRP is inclusive of all taxes and the commission or profit of the retailer.
Maximum Retail Price

[HED123] When consumers go to the market to make purchases, they may encounter one or more of the following ----- problems. Except affordable price