

_____ is the right of person to receive assistance in times of need or crisis.
Community organization

The social work education started in the year _____ 1936

The role of a community organizer that passes facts and expertise to a group is called Communicator

_____ empowers people to claim their human rights , satisfy their aspiration and gain greater control in the decision making processes that affect their lives
Social justice

Jim Ife derived _____ keys power group
7

The principle of community organization that make workers in the community to show respect for customs, traditions and values is called _____
The principle of cultural orientation

The working together to recognized and analyzed and enforce measures that are focused on shared respect for various cultures and contributions is called _____ Co-operation

_____ introduced three community organization in the year 1968
Jack Rothman

The importance on a group and higher members is called _____ Profile

There are _____ elements of community development programme
3