

Europe

[INR211] The industrial revolution began in the mid-17th Century in ____ Great Britain

[INR211] The First World War ended with unconditional surrender of ____ in November 1918.
Germany

[INR211] Feudalism placed authority in ____ hands.
private

[INR211] This domination and shaping of the world by the ____ was a significant characteristic of the 18th and 19th centuries.
Europeans

[INR211] The French Revolution of 1879 was against ____ rule.
absolute

[INR211] France could not conquer many European areas due to the supremacy of the British ____ on the seas.
Navy

[INR211] The English philosopher who attacked absolute power and the notion of the divine right of kings is ____ John Locke

[INR211] Organised diplomacy began with the relations among city-states of ancient

Greece

[INR211] The establishment of a world organisation known as League of Nations was part of the provision of ____ The Treaty of Versailles

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net