

The establishment of the African Economic Community in Abuja by Babangida's military regime was in :
June, 1991

The expression of discontentment over Nigeria's rising influence in the West African sub region by two countries are:
Senegal and Cote d'Ivoire

_____ The number of regimes that emerged after Nigeria's independence.
12

The ECOWAS regional bloc places much emphasis on the following except:
supporting democratic governance across member states

One of the following does not constitute an External Environment factor in the determination of Nigeria's foreign policy.
Demographic Factor

In which of the countries a resolution was achieved on the creation of Economic Community held in October , 1972.
Ghana

The attainment of foreign policy objectives depends on the following except:
Foreign policy must be integrated within global agenda

All are Principles of Nigerian Foreign Policy except one of the following:
Commitment to inter-dependence of other states

Nigeria was the first country in the world to commit peace - keeping troops in which of the countries below?
Sudan