

One of the following is not associated with global environmental degradation

Houses

Most environmental problems transcends national borders and require _____ and _____ not available to many nations

Resources and technologies

Environmental concerns are becoming accepted as legitimate national _____ Security issues

The problem of global warming is not as a consequence of specific destructive activity but of the quantity of _____ Human action

The radical view to solving environmental degradation can be addressed meaningfully by abandonment of current

Socio economic development

The orthodox view to environmental degradation sees solution through the adaptation of ?

Human institution

Natural scientist believed that socio-economic and political phenomena are at the core of the problem of _____ Environmental change

Dwindling water supplies are causing political tension and threaten _____ a.

Military action