

can be simply categorized into two

[INR393] The international political system is surrounded with different actors which can be simply categorized into one

[INR393] _ determines international political behaviour of state power

[INR393] The idea of balance of power was born out of the desire to protect national interest in a _ diplomatic

[INR393] The interest of the state is called _? national interest

[INR393] The evolution of international political system has been traced to the Westphalia Treaty

[INR393] The evolution of international political system has been traced to the Westphalia Treaty

[INR393] The complex period in the evolution of international political system was _ transitional period

[INR393] The complex period in the evolution of international political system was _ the classical period

[INR393] Thirty years war differentiated the church from the _ state