

_____ with another state or number of states.
treaty

[INR422] International institution is an institution that has occupied a central place in international relations, composed of countries that come together to achieve specific _____.
goals

[INR422] _____ is an organisation with international membership, scope or presence.
International Organisation

[INR422] An example of an institution based on security is the _____.
European Police Office

[INR422] The International Monetary Fund started its activities fully when _____ countries signed the agreement.
29

[INR422] _____ was the founding member of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.
Canada

[INR422] The method of classification is based on the fact that the membership of some international institutions is _____.
exclusive

[INR422] Classifications of international institutions are based on the following: number, _____, interests and region or geography.
common history

[INR422] The International Court of Justice (ICJ) is another institution that settles ____
among its member states.
disputes

[INR422] The World Food Programme (WFP) is an institution established to address _____ worldwide
hunger