

salvation in the next world. Shar'ah

[ISL835] ----- is the original, final and divine chief source from which all principles and ordinances of Shar'ah are drawn.
Qur'an

[ISL835] I'tiqad refers to all sorts of belief, creed or faith in Islam (Iman or Tawhid), which is:
The first pillar of Islam

[ISL835] ----- cover the devotional aspect of the Shar'ah. It therefore deals with all acts of ritual and worship in Islam.
Ibadat

[ISL835] In the technical language of Islam, Shar'ah means: the path ordained by Allah through Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

[ISL835] Muamalat deals with: human transactions and civil matters

[ISL835] The Islamic Law (Shar'ah) has four major sources. Two of the sources of Shar'ah are basic, primary and authoritative. They are: Qur'an and the Traditions of the Prophet

[ISL835] The origin of Islamic Law (Shar'ah) is traceable to Allah

[ISL835] Uqubat deals with: punishments and penalties

[ISL835] The main objective of Shar'ah is to construct human life based on:
the act of doing good and forbidding evil

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net