

East

[JIL511] The Cold War is between the West and the East

[JIL511] The two primary cases in which International Court of Justice has explained the emergence of Customary International Law is North Sea Continental Shelf Co. Ltd and Nicaragua v. USA

[JIL511] Treaty as a source of International Law is provided for in Article 34

[JIL511] Customary International Law consists of general principle and
Opinion Juris

[JIL511] Customary International Law consists of general principle and
Opinion Juris

[JIL511] Under International Law, Public International Law takes precedence over conflicting National Law.
Yes

[JIL511] Under International Law, Public International Law takes precedence over conflicting National Law.
No

[JIL511] The international Court of Justice is Located in the Netherland

[JIL511] The international Court of Justice is Located in the Netherland