

Teleological theory

[JLS812] Characteristics of humans which predispose them to being ethical beings include _____

They are learning beings

[JLS812] Values essential to ethical life include _____

All of the options

[JLS812] _____ must be proved for an action of defamation to succeed in court.

Repetition

[JLS812] Statutes and informal restraints are _____

Regulatory mechanisms

[JLS812] _____ involves the willingness to submit oneself for scrutiny

Accountability

[JLS812] _____ appeared in England in 1621.

Corantoes

[JLS812] _____ are ways of defining a phenomena

Theory

[JLS812] _____ maintains that a right action is right at all times.

Absolutist

[JLS812] Ethical theories can be divided into _____

Teleological and Deontological

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net