

(AAHPER) formed a committee to define adapted physical education and give direction for teachers in the year 1952

[KHE125] The cardinal yearning of physical educators is to provide physical education to every individual irrespective of their Abilities

[KHE125] _____ are those children that differ from what the society regards as normal
Exceptional children

[KHE125] Adapted Physical Education is today known as Individuals with Disabilities Education

[KHE125] Adapted Physical Education originated in the year 1975

[KHE125] The purpose of early adapted physical education programmes include the following, except:
Philosophical development

[KHE125] _____ refers to an educational programme that provides education to individuals with special needs
Adapted Physical Education

[KHE125] Adapted Physical education entails the adjustment of general physical education to suit the needs of Individuals with disability

[KHE125] Adapted Physical Education is generally viewed as a term that originated in:
United States

[KHE125] _____ refers to sports modified or created to meet the unique needs of individuals with disabilities
Adapted sports

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net