

1. African communication is_____.

distinctive

2. _____ are prominent sources of information in Africa.

Foreign delegates

3. Communication in traditional African societies is usually documented.

This notion is erroneous.

4. It is _____to describe a colour like Pink in African languages difficult

5. The communication process involves _____information.

exchanging

6. Culture portrays a people's _____.

values

7. The sense of _____ plays a prominent role in African communication sight

8. African communication systems hold sway in the _____ generally.

rural places

9. Our traditional communication system can also be referred to as African communication. _____.

This is true

10. Over time, African communication has _____.

not attracted much attention from scholars