

One of the major reasons for the adoption of participatory/alternative paradigm is that _____.
More will be accomplished.

Communication barriers that result from the wrong use of words will produce _____ noise.
Linguistics

_____ refers to digesting and expounding the message.
Decoding

We can refer to _____ as the champion of development communication.
Nora Quebral

_____ is concerned with gathering, packaging and disseminating development-oriented news and information.
Development journalism

What do you think?
Development refers to an improvement of quality of life, qualitatively and quantitatively.

One of the components of the _____ is that people can think or reason and achieve any height by themselves.
Participation paradigm _____ paradigm of development is based on the assumption that the common people are intelligent and can be active agents of change.

Participation

Utterances of a mentally challenged man who speaks to himself can be said to be the product of _____ communication.
Intra-personal

Communication barriers that result from the receiver's bias and attitude will produce _____ noise.
Psychological