

1957

[MBF845] Balance of payment of country is a record of the monetary transaction over a personal with the rest of the world

[MBF845] One out of these is not a broad functional categories of letters of credit.
Inland and offshore

[MBF845] One of the difference between central Bank and commercial bank is that central bank is a State owned institution

[MBF845] One of the mode of international Banking Corresponding Banking

[MBF845] International banking is also known as Foreign/offshore banking

[MBF845] The issuing bank of letters of credit Assume the responsibility for setting debt

[MBF845] The following are the reason for international banking except one.
Facilitate international trade and business.

[MBF845] Identify which one of these is not a different form of cheques certified cheques

[MBF845] The following are not the features of balance of payment except one.
it is a systematic record of all economic transaction between one country and the rest of the world.

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net