

1. One of the focuses of community health nursing is to maintain equilibrium between man and environment
2. Communities of Interests are responsible for formation of communities widely
3. One of the basic characteristics of a community is Permanence
4. Communities of interest imply Communities within communities
5. _____model assumes that a person's vital role is the work roles.
The role performance model
6. Communities that work together to ensure provision of drainages and gutters when community roads suddenly became flooded during rainy season is Communities of solution
7. A community is not a uniformly shared lives of people over a definite region.
8. One of the main functions of a community include Provision of resources at time of illness and disaster
9. Communities with a collection of people sharing physical space, located in a specific place and are made up of institutions are Geographic communities
10. Distributing educational information on safe sex, self-protection, the dangers of substance abuse is easier in a which of the following communities?
Geographic communities

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net