

According to Dahlgren and Whitehead (2006) health inequalities are ____ Socially produced ____ is the key underlying cause of poor health outcomes poverty

The family is a product of ____ and ____ time and place ____ is the process of enabling people to increase control over and to improve their health

Health promotion

One of the activities involved in phase one of the cycle is ____ Formulating hypotheses

For effective reduction in health inequalities ____ approach requires longterm vision and investment Determinants of health approaches ____ is carried out in phase 3 Collecting the data

The overall goal of health promotion is to enhance ____ and prevent ____ positive health, ill health

Health and wellbeing is affected by the level of ____ Health care services

Capacity building can be developed with Individuals, organizations and communities

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net