

Comparative Public Administration is the study of ----- and then draws parallels from them

Two or more public administration systems

According to W.A. Welsh, comparison is the basis of concept formation
Comparison

Which model emphasised hierarchy in administration
Bureaucratic model

The system's theory was made popular by
Karl Max

All of these except one are models of comparative public administration study
Banditry model

Who popularized the ecological and Prismatic Model ?
Fred W. Riggs

The early 1980s scholars who started a movement for revival of comparative public administration included the following except
Milton Obotu

Generally, comparative studies present problems of a ----- nature
General

Before now, the Comparative Administrative Group (CAG) has focused development administration as
The Third World problem

A comparative study is usually done on an -----format
Interdisciplinary