

_____ and the United States of America constitute the classic examples of a two party system
Great Britain

In Nigeria, the definition of powers of public officers is contained in _____.
written constitution

Conflict is a situation in which parties disagree about the distribution of symbolic resources and _____.
incompatibility of goals

In Nigeria, the _____ ultimately retains the power to impeach the head of the executive.
Legislature

_____ describes the concentration of decision making power in a small number of officials.
Centralisation

In a federalist sytem the principle of _____ of powers is a vital institutional to the thriving of democracy and good governance.
separation

_____ refers to the practice and acceptance of government by means of the constitution.
Constitutionalism

In the _____, the political contest is usually between the Republican and the Democratic parties.
United States

_____ divides the powers of government among different branches and institutions of of the political system.
Constitution

The great legacy which Montesquieu has bequeathed to modern government is difussion of the powers of government into different bodies and _____.
institutions