

defined territory and an organized system of government
State

[POL221] Geographical contingency is a principle of _____ Federalism

[POL221] There were _____ universities in Nigeria in 1966
4

[POL221] _____ is the collectivity of trained, armed personnel available to the government for taking part in armed conflict
Military

[POL221] The 1951 constitution can also be called _____ constitution
Mcpherson

[POL221] The history of the early nationalism in Nigeria can be traced to the _____ part of the country
Southern

[POL221] _____ is a union of sovereign state but with loose center because the federating units retains their sovereignty in its original form and concept
Confederacies

[POL221] the 1946 constitution provided for Nigeria to be divide into _____ regions
3

[POL221] The 1957 Nigerian Constitutional conference took in _____ London

[POL221] A state is is said to be _____ when there is a domineering central authority serving the sole source of authority within the state the territorial units
Unitary