

diplomatic immunity.

The inviolability of the person and properties of a diplomatic officer

[POL452] According to _____ the state as a person of international law should possess a permanent population, defined territory, a government and capacity to enter into relations with other states
Montevideo Convention, 1933

[POL452] The argument of the natural law is that -----
The human race forms a single moral and ethical community

[POL452] International law as a discipline originated from man's search for which of the following?
All of the above

[POL452] One of the characteristics of international law is that it is _____ static

[POL452] Choose the option that does not represent one of the sources of International law
None of the above

[POL452] The two principal theories for explaining relationship between International and Municipal laws are ----- Monism and Dualism

[POL452] Which of the following is the root of racial discrimination in the International system?
Competitions for superiority among the various races of the world

[POL452] Which of the following persons is the official ears, mouths and eyes of his country in a foreign land?
A diplomat

[POL452] Which of the following personalities was the brain behind the Versailles Treaty of 1919?
Woodrow Wilson

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net