

World War ____ that social scientists began to turn their attention to it as a governmental institution.

11

[PUL844] In the ____ century it was widely believed that there is a ____ higher law ____ a fundamental moral order, upon which a firm and moral society must rest and in accordance with the rules of which it must be built.

19th

[PUL844] Who defined administrative Law as the law, which determines the ends and modes to which the sovereign power shall be exercised?

Austin

[PUL844] How many main types of globalized administrative regulation are distinguishable?

5

[PUL844] According to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the United Nations in 1948 created some ____ basic rights to provide a global understanding of how to treat individuals.

30

[PUL844] The 1999 Constitution confers a special jurisdiction on the ____ court for the purpose of enforcement of the fundamental Rights provisions.

High

[PUL844] The strict or liberal interpretation of the separation of powers principle is one of the main problems of administrative law expansion in ____, where the courts have the power to review legislative acts.

the United States

[PUL844] The following have been identified as the underlying purposes of administrative law except?

lack of remedy for grievances

[PUL844] Right to life is guaranteed in which section of the 1999 Constitution of Nigeria?

33

[PUL844] Who defined social contract as a society ____ "in which individuals independently endowed with property and with the capacity to exercise political judgment contract together to found the state ____?"

Elisabeth Ellis