

Quantitative

[STT205] The size of a family is an example of a _____ variable Continuous

[STT205] The population of primary school pupils in the state of the country to allow the Federal Government plan for the primary education is an example of _____ data primary

[STT205] In studying the nutritional well-being of pupils in a primary school, the _____ is a pupil in the school entity

[STT205] A variable that is not measurable in numerical form or that cannot be counted is called _____ variable
Qualitative

[STT205] _____ is used extensively to control and analyse stock level such as minimum, maximum and reorder levels.
Statistics

[STT205] Management uses _____ to make forecast about the sales and labour cost of a firm
statistics

[STT205] _____ variable is a variable whose values are given as numerical quantities
Quantitative

[STT205] _____ variable is the variable that can only assume whole numbers
Discrete

[STT205] Colours of fruits and taste of some brands of a biscuit are examples of _____ variable
Qualitative

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net