

Discrete

[STT206] Business uses statistics to monitor the various _____ in the national economy for the various budget decisions changes

[STT206] All the unit of the population may not be reached at times, we then refer to that part of the population from which information is collected as a _____ sample

[STT206] Non-numerical data cannot be subjected to _____ analysis except they are transformed to numerical data statistical

[STT206] Government uses _____ as a tool for collecting data on economic aggregates such as national income, savings, consumption and gross national product statistics

[STT206] Variables are referred to as _____ if they do not take specific values. Continuous

[STT206] Statistics is defined as the _____ of facts in numerical forms presentation

[STT206] Business makes use of _____ in production, marketing, administration and in personnel management statistics

[STT206] Government uses statistics during _____ census

[STT206] Government uses statistics to measure the effects of external factors on its policies and to assess the trends in the economy so that it can _____ future policies plan

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net