

IMF is the organization that lends funds for poverty alleviation to developing countries

OMO as a quantitative instrument of monetary policy also means...
Open Market Operations

Which among these is not a goal to sustainable development
Payment of gratuity

These involve the various ways to reduce external debt except... debt taking

Listed are the purposes of recurrent expenditure except... determining salaries

Long term capital is mostly sourced from ...organ World bank

Business organizations located in more than one country are known as...
multi-national organizations which of these constitute federal, state and the local government?

three tiers of government

Government enterprises are owned by...to perform commercial activities government

Objectives of ...include operational and treasury management public finance management

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net