

1. facilitate untwisting process is known as helicases

2. Most vegetable oils contain "… fatty acids.

Unsaturated

3. The process of mRNA being translated to amino acids takes place where?

Cytoplasm

4. The activities of G2 Phase of Cell Cycle can be grouped into the following except

Dissolution

5. Cyclin-dependent Kinases is otherwise known as

Maturation Promoting Factors

6. Triacylglycerol as a result of their insolubility in water form "… in the cytoplasm

Fat droplets

7. The organelles of specimen for microscopy retard or propagate light waves differently because of different "…

Refractive indices

8. when chromosomes undergo changes or variations, "… is believed to have occurred

Mutation

9. What type of bond exist between hydrogen atoms and oxygen atom in water compound?

Covalent bond

10. What is the main function of the Base in Light microscope?

To safely transport the microscope

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net