

1. The _____ is a complete description of how the organism relates to its physical and biological environment.
niche

2. _____ is a symbiotic relationship which is harmful to the prey organism and beneficial to the parasite
Parasitism

3. Temperate rainforests occur along the following except.
pacific coast of North America

4. Temperate _____ forests grow in continental climates of Northern hemisphere in areas with relatively warm summers and cold or severe winters.
deciduous

5. _____ are found in marine habitats, brackish estuaries, rivers, streams, lakes and ponds.
Aquatic Ecosystems

6. _____ are found all over the world and are the hottest and driest habitats on earth. Organisms that live in deserts develop special adaptations to help them cope with the harsh desert conditions.
Deserts

7. The temperate rainforests climate is cool and maritime, lacking great variation in temperature and with abundant summer rain and much _____.
All of the options

8. _____ is an interaction that occurs among organisms within a community of an ecosystem when they require the same resource that is in short supply
Competition

9. Temperate _____ are found across large areas of eastern Europe and Asia (Eurasia) where they are called steppe; Central North America where they are called prairie.
grassland

10. All are the fundamental steps in the operation of the ecosystem except Transformation to forms unsuitable for the nutrition of the producers.

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net