

8/10

n

Which of the following is not true about Operations Research?
It works based on Heuristics

What approach of interpreting, analyzing and solving management problems is the Operations Research method?
Scientific Approach

A Symbolic model is also known as a Mathematical model

Operations Research is a powerful tool used for _____ Decision making

The successful use of operations research techniques usually results in a solution that is flexible

it was during the _____ that the Operations Research innovative science was discovered World war II

_____ that represents the relationship between the variables in the form of formulas.
Analytic

Solutions generated from the use of operations research techniques usually have the following properties except economical

Which of the following is not true about Probabilistic model?
incorporate uncertainty in terms of probabilities of future event occurring

The objective function in a linear programming problems is usually?
A linear function in an optimization problem

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net