

Bacteria

[CRP303] Mosaic pattern on leaves with pucketing, distortion and reduction on leaves.

This disease symptom is:

Cassava mosaic disease

[CRP303] Abnormal growth of the vascular tissues so the shoot becomes swollen. This is a symptom of:

Swollen shoot disease of Cocoa

[CRP303] Symptoms of Nematode diseases include the following EXCEPT:

Swollen shoot

[CRP303] Leaf and Pod Spot is caused by:

Ascochyta pisi

[CRP303] Which of these statements is incorrect about Pseudomonas phaseolicola ?

It is a viral disease

[CRP303] Which of the following statements is not correct?

Viruses can never be transmitted by seed

[CRP303] _____ are plants without green pigments necessary for photosynthesis

Fungi

[CRP303] A departure from normal state of health presenting marked symptoms or outward visible signs is _____.

disease

[CRP303] Which statement is incorrect?

Bacterial diseases are controlled with chloroform

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net