

Environmental Intervention Models includes Clinical Intervention Model and _____ Public Health Model

_____ can be replenished by natural means as quickly as the rate at which they are consumed
None of the options

Vector control is concern with _____ control of mammals and anthropods that transmit disease

Onsite sanitation refers to _____ the collection and treatment of waste at the place where it is deposited

Sanitation refers to _____ the prevention of human contact with wastes for hygienic purposes _____ is an example of a natural hazard

A and B

_____ is not an endlessly renewable resource water

The discovery that microorganisms cause disease was made known by _____ Louis Pasteur

Globally, the sector using the most water is _____ agriculture

_____ falls into the categories of direct use of water
All of the options

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net