

Detoxification of foreign substances occur at a lesser extent in _____ Kidney and Intestine

Which of these is a water soluble vitamin _____ Riboflavin

Rickets is a deficiency of _____ vitamin
D

The end product of beta oxidation (-oxidation) of fatty acid is _____ AcetylCoA

The digestion of protein begins in the stomach and not in the mouth because of _____ Proteolytic enzymes that degrade proteins are present in the mouth

Which of these is not present in the animal cell
Microtubules

The process of detoxification which involves conversion of hydrocarbons to their corresponding alcohol is called _____ Reduction

The urea cycle shows the complete degradation of _____ Amino acids

In the absence of Oxygen, the end product of glycolysis is _____ Lactic acid

Trace elements are minerals _____ in the body
None of the above

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net