

1. _____ are events brought about by natural hazards that seriously affect the society, economy and/or infrastructure of a region.
Natural Disaster
2. Measures taken in advance of a disaster aimed at decreasing or eliminating its impact on society and environment is called _____ Mitigation
3. _____ is a move by a state or an international organisation to involve itself in the domestic affairs of another state, whether the state consents or not Intervention
4. Once an area has been singled out as requiring priority intervention following a disaster, attention should turn next to:
conducting technical surveys to evaluate and plan the restoration of lifeline services
5. The process of locating and recovering disaster victims and the application of first aid and basic medical assistance as may be required is called _____ Search and rescue
6. Relocation of disaster victims in camps:
usually represents the most efficient use of scarce resources
7. Emergency environmental health control measures are carried out:
as soon as a warning is received 8. Educating the public on what to expect in the event of a disaster and what emergency steps to take:
would increase the likelihood of survival 9. Environmental sanitation involves:
collecting, treating, and disposing of human waste to prevent risk of disease 10. Predisaster environmental health measures are intended to reduce or eliminate environmental health hazards, caused or aggravated in a disaster, by:
developing evacuation strategies, coordinating transport and distribution of emergency supplies, and developing a public education program

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net