

One of the following is a major factor that affect allocation of resources _____ size of budget

The distribution of resources usually financial, human and material among the competing cases of emergency is termed _____ resource allocation

A discipline and specialty that studies and implements practical aspects of environmental protection and safety at work is called _____ environmental health and safety

A written down rules that covers the designated actions employers and employees must take to ensure employee safety from fire and other emergencies is called _____ emergency action plan

Which of the following is not one of the phases of emergency management awareness

All of the following are the common types of emergencies except _____ physical

The EHS principles cover areas that are specific to each organisation as well as those that are general to those organisations. Which one of the following that does not belong energy conservation

The following are the essential elements of health and safety except _____ road construction

The environment can be categorized into the following except _____ land pollution

All of the following are emergency services except _____ custom service