

1. A _____ is an optical instrument used in modern surveying and archaeology

2. The basic measuring instrument for noise exposures is called _____

Sound level meter

3. The checklist for sample collection includes the following except _____

Time

4. The technical performance of a sound system includes the following except _____

Monitoring

5. The study of climates and their variations is called _____

Meteorology

6. Surface water temperatures are usually taken at the _____ Field directly

7. The following are components of sound measuring system except the _____

Tape recorder

8. _____ are used for deep sample collection

Von Dorm Sampler

9. The following are direct reading instruments except _____

Chromatography

10. The interface between the acoustic field and the measuring system is called _____

Microphone

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net