

1.The English word 'Afterwards' is stressed on the 1st syllable ans:first

2.It has been observed that students who want to be well-focused in their writing, need to learn how to summarise
ans:summarise

3.When we use a rising tone on the nucleus of a syllable, the pitch starts at a low level.
ans:low

4.The word 'important' carries stress on its 2nd syllable ans:second

5.A long sentence is usually divided into what may be called breath groups, or tone groups.
ans:tone

6.The interview is often called a personality test because it helps the interview board get an insight into your personality.
ans:personality test

7.Which of the following words contain the sound /w/?
ans:world

8.Even if you are confident and experienced, you must remember that preparation is the first step towards success at an interview.
ans:preparation

9.The only way you can learn how to summarise is for you to do it practically ans:do it practically

10.Wh-questions which are said in a warm friendly way should always be said with the rising tone.
ans: rising

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net