

The efforts by government to motivate development at the grassroots led to the enactment of the _____ local government reform.
1976

_____ and _____ are the two group power system models in community organization Pluralist and Stratification

The principle of community organization that is based on the belief that common people have a tendency to remain passive and allow others to take decisions for them is called

Principle of democratic functioning

All the following are approaches used by community leader to mobilize the oppressed and vulnerable communities EXCEPT.
Social justice _____ is a means of helping marginalized group and people interact more effectively with other interests by encouraging them to develop and using lobbying skills

The pluralistic perspective empowerment _____ is a leader that promoted and gives guidance to the group to pursue voluntary self-help activities in the process of community organization

Animator

The role of community organizer that provide information, knowledge and advice in a variety of areas he has professional expertise about is called _____ Expert

The objective of community development programme that introduce changes in crop and animal production, living conditions and people's health is called

Specific objective

_____ help to improve quality of life for community members Community organization _____ referred to community organization as a form of intervention by which a skilled change agent encourages a programme of community action consisting of individuals, associations to participate in organized collective action to resolve social problems within a democratic systems of values.

Kramer and specht

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net