

Local government serves as a channel of-----between state government and the community
Communication

Nigeria became an independent nation on -----.
October 1st, 1960

If the central/state government is overloaded with work, it becomes -----, incapable and inefficient to perform its duties.
Incompetent

The emergence of military rule in Nigerian politics on 15th January,

1967 was via the coup d'etat led by -----
Major Chukuma Nzeogwu

Local government not only provides certain essential services to the people, but also reduces the ----- of central/state government as well.
Burden

A local government is a ----- for future leaders
Training ground

Among the nationalist agitations for changes in colonial administration between 1935-1950, was the reform of Local Administration properly known as the -----.
Native Authority

The reform brought for the first time in the history of Nigeria a unified local government system with defined functions and structure
Agree

Therefore, local government is necessary for the development of initiative and interest of ----- in government and responsibility.
The people

The Great Reforms of 1976 were carried out by----- General Obasanjo

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net