

_____ are the most vulnerable in armed conflict and must therefore be protected.
Children

During a meeting of the Joint Peace Commission, it was recognized that _____, which was a key component for post-conflict negotiation and reconstruction was missing.
women

International _____ law lays down the minimum protection and standards applicable to situation where people are most vulnerable in armed conflict and the Geneva conventions and their additional protocols.
humanitarian

Conflict is a natural disagreement resulting from individuals or groups that differ in _____.
All of the option

The _____ of states is a fundamental principle in international relations and is enshrined in the UN Charter by Article 2(7).
sovereignty

The need for _____ was seen to be particularly useful during the political, economic and security reconstruction of Afghanistan.
women

Humanitarian intervention, particularly after NATO action in Kosovo, has become a new justification for _____.
military action

In _____ the situation is resolved in a way that leads the ending of any violent confrontation, to a decrease in tension and to more normal relationships between the parties.
Post Conflict

_____ is the stage at which conflict becomes more open and only one side feels there is a problem.
Confrontation

The principle of _____ is almost sacrosanct, with the exception of the inherent right of self-defence and UN-sanctioned intervention (article 51 of the UN charter).
non-intervention