

The _____ theory describes a situation where actors actions are delayed till the situation gets unbearable, most social unrests involving especially the urban poor fall into this category.
cumulative

A _____ or setting can be harmonious or symbiotic.
Formation

The _____ formation theory of Galtung explains basis of the emergence or manifestation of conflicts.
conflict

_____ evidences, however, suggest that democratic states are prone to wars just like the authoritarian states Empirical

_____ education on its own involves the use of teaching tools designed to bring about a more peaceful society.
Peace

_____ theorist have viewed education as preparing people for a place in society.
Conflict

_____ so far as the attainment of a goal by a party is correlated with the goal attainment of the other party.
Formation

A _____ marriage should have this feature, the satisfaction of one party going together with the satisfaction of the other.
Harmonious

Birgit Brock-Utne defines _____ education as a social process through which peace is achieved.
peace

_____ theory, when the statements of the actors have no logical or intelligible link to the triggers of the conflict.
Additive