

Good oral hygiene, good eating habits and fluoridation are proper practices in ____ prevention of Dental caries

Primary

____ is caused by injury to the tooth, its supporting tissues and the skeletal bone

Dental trauma

The most important method in preventing periodontal disease is ____

Oral hygiene

____ is applied when damage has already occurred, and involves limitation of disability

Tertiary prevention

____ is the most frequent common site for oral cancers

Lower lip

Most oral cancers are _____

Squamous Cell Carcinomas

Complications of injuries in Dental trauma include:

All of the above

Factors responsible for periodontal disease include:

All the above

____ is a bacterial infection which involves a continuous demineralisation of the tooth by by-products of microorganisms and reduced remineralisation

Dental caries

The following are types of effects of injuries, except

Ulceration

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net