

1. _____ and amniocentesis allow parents to determine sex before birth.

Sonography

2. _____ refers to cleaning the walls of the uterus with a curette.

Curettage

3. _____ is associated with Diabetes in the mother

Polyhydramnios

4. _____ during pregnancy is hazardous to pregnant women and the growing fetus.

Heart disease

5. Severe _____ can be detected at antenatal examination.

Pallor

6. Twins can be identified by finding two _____

Heart beats

7. _____ is associated with high risk women in the postpartum period.

Multiparity

8. _____ is harmful to the fetus as well as to the mother

Toxemia

9. _____ by the third day of life is physiologically normal in the new born.

Jaundice

10. _____ is known as decreased amniotic fluid.

Oligohydramnios

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net