

1. _____ change refers to fundamental alterations in the structural foundation of power relations of a polity?
Systemic
2. Many scholars have characterized developing countries such as Nigeria as having a _____ political culture?
Neo-Patrimonial
3. Political culture, whether diverse or homogenous, is a product of all the following factors except _____?
Economic
4. The socialisation process may be latent or _____?
Manifest
5. One of these is not a type of citizen's orientation?
Machiavellian
6. Which of these is not an agent of political socialization?
Consular
7. Political socialisation involves the transmission of the _____ of a group or the society to successive members of that group or society?
Political culture
8. Political culture is commonly shared goals and commonly accepted _____?
Rules
9. The mass media carry out its socialising activities through all the following outlets except?
Commissioner for Finance
10. The time span of socialisation can refer to the following except?
major affect

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net