

A theory simply means _____ that are logically related to each other hypotheses

A simplified _____ of reality in descriptive or abstract form is known as model representation

Descriptive approach to comparative government has been criticised as being _____ and formalistic static

Traditional approach to the study of comparative government grew out of a response to the _____ historicism

The age of _____ in comparative politics emphasised reason and science in philosophy Enlightenment

Federal dominance in _____ policy initiatives is a feature of the Nigerian federalism public

Comparative method in the understanding of political phenomenon is referred to as the _____ master strategy

A _____ is a word that applies to a whole category of phenomena concept

According to the system theory, the institutions is not one of the three primary components of every _____ system political

David Easton developed a unique _____ approach for the purpose of political analysis systemic