

Policymakers focusing on behavioural and attitudinal approach categorise it under----- level of analysis individual Soft power is largely attributed to----- Joseph Nye
A good example of International----- Organisation is the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) Governmental International law is partially built on custom___ as some of its major planks sources ___ is one of the key determinants of power in international relations according to the realist theory population
The prevalence of___ in the international system is a building for analysis of the power theory war
The___ of power is a major plank in the realist school in international politics centrality
The use of techniques and procedures in interaction within international system is called----- diplomacy
-----to----- were the years that defined the span of the second world war 1939-1945
State___ are the dominant players in the international system
Actor

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net