

1. Census is a _____ type of data collection
Direct method
2. The term that addresses the relationship between population processes and demographic characteristics of populations such as the age and sex of a given population, the race and ethnicity of a population, their socioeconomic status, and education is called _____
Population Structure
3. Demographic analysis is also called _____
Formal demography
4. Which of these is not an objective of demography
Observing, measuring and describing changes that does not affect sizes, composition and distribution over time
5. The principle of population?was explained by _____ theory of demography
Malthus Theory of population
6. Population distribution depends on which of these?
Environment
7. Which among these is not a major professional involved in demography
Statiticians
8. a high proportion of old persons and declining number of birth is known as _____ Regressive population
9. Net Reproduction Rate (NRR) represents _____ the number of female children that a female child just born can expect to bear
10. if births go unchecked, the population of a country or even of the world will out strip its food supply is a theory given by _____
The Malthusian Theory

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net